Members and Friends of the CCU

As 2018 is coming to an end, much has transpired within this year. In 2013 Robert Cermak was asked to take over the office of President, but now has decided to retire and will not be running for the office of President at the 2018 Convention. The board went on the search for a replacement and through a mutual acquaintance, I was contacted and met with Bob and Audrey (CCU Vice President) on many interviews. After much discussion I accepted to step in as the President of CCU beginning October 2nd. I was asked to officially begin on July 2nd as the Assistant Treasurer until I took over as your new president. CCU owes Bob a huge debt of thanks for taking on the position of president and he has made many significant strides to make CCU what it is today. I feel I have some big shoes to fill, but I feel that with continued assistance of the Home Office staff, the Board and Bob as a consultant, we can continue to do what is in the best interest of the organization and its membership.

Dolores Jacklin has decided to step down as a long time CCU director, and we all want to thank her for her long dedication to the organization and wish her the best in the years to come.

We also would like to say Welcome to our new director, Richard Prospal, a longtime member. I am looking forward to working with you Richard and all of the other Board members in the years to come.

In late August the home Office mailed the 2018 Promo. This program will run September 1 through December 31, 2018. To reiterate the program is a chance to increase your life insurance, either by purchasing a new Single Premium or 5 Pay Whole Life policies. With a purchase of a new life insurance policy you are being offered to open an Annuity earning 3.5% in the first year and will revert to the current rate after the first year. Take a few minutes to review the program which is also printed in the September issue of the Posel and contact the Home Office should you have any questions.

Thanksgiving is around the corner and before we know it Christmas. Take time this holiday season to make the most of it with your friends and family.

Fraternally,

The Mystery of Christmas

A retired priest I lived with told me that he gave Christmas creches to couples that he married as a wedding gift. What a great idea! And what a way to remind a couple that as they begin the experience of Christian marriage, Christ is born in their love and commitment to each other. And what a way to ensure that the new family have something religious in their home for Christmas!

I was in Brussels several years ago. It was the beginning of December. In the Cathedral, they had a wonderful display of Christmas creches from around the world. It was fascinating to see how the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, baby Jesus, and the shepherds were represented by the rainbow of faces from Oriental, African, European, and Latin-American countries. The figurines were displayed in beautiful folkloric dress of their respective cultures. And the “stables” where our Lord was born reflected the conditions of the poorest of the poor in each country. The display magnificently presented how Jesus has taken on the “flesh” of all cultures and how he is incarnate in human experience. It was a beautiful display of the catholicity (universality) of our Christian faith.

Here at Our Lady of Lourdes, I enjoy observing the Christmas traditions of our Latino parishioners. For them, Christmas is the night of December 24th. We don’t even have a Mass in Spanish on the 25th! Many of our Mexican families bring their baby Jesus to Mass on the 24th. Most of them are as big as a real infant - not tiny as we are accustomed to. And they are beautifully dressed. After Mass, the families line up in front of the altar with the baby Jesus in hammocks. They gently swing the babies and sing a long lullaby that tells the story of His birth - the great mystery of our God becoming a human person - and the redemption this child brings to the human experience. The song is very long and since most memories are short, smart phones assist with the words! The same baby is placed in their Christmas cribs at home. It is huge in comparison with the other diminutive figures. While we may see this as out of proportion, the scene of the large baby surrounded by very small Mary and Joseph reflects a true understanding of what Christmas is all about!

We as well as Christians around the world will once more contemplate the great mystery of the birth of the Lord. Give special attention to your Christmas creche. Tell your children and grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and godchildren the story depicted in the creche and its impact on the world and on you.

God’s blessing on you and yours this Holy Christmas!

The 2018 Convention was held September 29 - October 2 in Cleveland, Ohio. Most of the attendees arrived early to attend the St. Wenceslaus Day Celebration. On Sunday, delegate registration and President’s reception were held at the Home Office. On Monday, the fun day was an excursion to Amish Country. On Tuesday, Convention meeting began with Mass celebrated by our Chaplain, Fr. Callahan, followed by the banquet, both held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Garfield Hts., Ohio. Pictures are on the following pages. More pictures will be in the January-February 2019 Posel.

In Appreciation

St. Ludmila Society #7, St. Louis, MO - “Dear Robert, Please know of my deep gratitude to you and the other executive members of the CCU. I have been encouraged by your commitment to my Catholic Formation, especially while in seminary. Thank you all for both the grant and your additional donation to assist with my costs of education. I am currently back in St. Louis having returned from Rome a couple days ago. Your prayers will be much appreciated as I begin my new ministry as a deacon. Please be assured of my prayers for you and the many members of the CCU. God Bless!”

Yours in Christ, Andrew Auer

Society #145, Cleveland, OH - “Thank you for awarding me the Czech Catholic Union High School grant. I will be entering the 9th grade at Archbishop Hoban High School in Akron this fall. Over the summer, I participated in “JAM”, Justice Akron Ministry, completing 3 days of service hours at Center of Hope in Ravenna. I’m on the JV Soccer Team and have made many new friends. I look forward to starting school and this grant has helped my family.”

Thank you again, Angie George

Want to add your child’s name to your deed?
Think twice first.

Recently, I have received many calls from potential clients who say “I want to add my child’s name to my deed” or “I want to transfer title to my house to my child.” I, without fail, tell these clients that they need to think long and hard before this is done.

Generally, the reasons a home owner would want to do this is either to avoid Probate upon his or her passing or to attempt to preserve the home in the event of a long-term nursing stay.

When you add another person’s name to a deed, you lose a degree of control over your property. If you want to sell or mortgage your home, your new co-owner has to agree and sign any needed documents. If this person is sued or has financial trouble, your house is vulnerable to being lost. If your name comes completely off the deed, then you have no say in what happens with your house.

Another consideration is that if you receive the homestead exemption on your property taxes, then this discount may be reduced or ended all together. Next, your child likely will need to pay capital gains tax (as high as 20%) once he or she sells the property.* To avoid this tax, a child needs to inherit the property or, in other words, take title after your death.

Now, one of the few ways to protect your house from being sold and its proceeds spent on a long-term nursing home stay, is to take your name off the property (then wait 5 years). However, again, you still face the downside to this action which I outlined above. So, this action needs to be carefully considered if the risky downsides are worth the transfer.

If the only goal is to avoid Probate, there are several, non-risky ways to do this, without changing your current ownership. If you live in Ohio, feel free to call me and we can discuss these options!

*Do not despair - when selling a property (during your life) that you resided in, you are exempt from capital gain taxes.

WORLD WAR I

A monument honoring Americans who fought in World War I is slated for a ceremonial dedication in November 2018. The memorial will be located in Washington, D.C.’s Pershing Park, between the White House and the U.S. Capitol.

World War I began July 28, 1914 and ended November 11, 1918. Over 9 million soldiers and 7 million civilians died as a result of the War. More than 116,000 Americans died in the War.

As World War I ends in 1918, political leaders in Europe and America create the new nation of Czechoslovakia. Crucial to that decision are 70,000 brave Czech and Slovak soldiers who support the Allies, seizing the Trans-Siberian railroad and fighting their way across Siberia - and eventually reaching their new homeland in Europe.

Irving Berlin wrote some of America’s most beloved songs, including “God Bless America.” He wrote it in 1918 and put it aside.

In 1938, just before World War II began, he wanted to write a “peace” song. He made some changes, and it was first performed by singer Kate Smith on a radio broadcast.

God bless America, land that I love.
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with a light from above.
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam.
God bless America, my home sweet home.

Irving Berlin performs for sailors aboard the U.S.S. Arkansas in 1944, during World War II. Berlin was born in Russia but moved with his family to the United States when he was just 5 years old.
MORAVSKE VANOCNI SUSENKY
(Moravian Christmas Cookies)

8 oz. dark molasses
1/2 c. brown sugar
1/2 c. margarine
1 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1 1/2 tsp. cloves
1 tsp. ginger
1 tsp. allspice
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 t baking soda
4 c. flour
water, if needed
Preheat oven to 350 Degrees F. Mix flour, sugar and spices together. Heat molasses until lukewarm and add baking soda to it. Add molasses to rest of ingredients and mix well. If necessary, add a little water to the dough to get it to a soft enough consistency to roll it.
Roll the dough on a well-floured surface, making it as thin as possible. Cut into desired shapes and transfer to a non-stick baking sheet.
Bake at 350 Degrees F. for 6 to 8 minutes.

KAPUSICA
(Traditional Christmas Sauerkraut Soup)

2 ham hocks
Small package pork neck bones
1 to 2 pounds smoked sausage
1 medium onion, sliced
1 clove garlic, cut in half
3 cans sauerkraut, rinsed
1 cup dried mushrooms
1/2 small box of prunes
Soak dried mushrooms in water to make them soft. Cook the ham hocks in a large kettle filled about half way with water. Add the neck bones, onions, garlic and sauerkraut. Cook for one hour and then add drained mushrooms. Cook for another hour and add sausage and prunes. Cook for another half hour. Remove sausage before the skins start to split. Add a little thickening of 1/2 cup water and 1 tablespoon flour. If the soup is too sour, add some brown sugar.

WASSAIL BOWL

2 quarts apple cider
1-1/2 cups orange juice
3/4 cup pineapple juice
2 cups sherry (more or less)
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
2 cinnamon sticks (3 inches)
Dash ground cinnamon
Dash ground cloves

In a large saucepan, combine all of the ingredients. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer for 20-30 minutes. Discard cinnamon sticks. Serve hot in mugs.

Arlington Cemetery Is Filling Up

Despite planned expansions, Arlington National Cemetery is nearing capacity. Some facts:
400,000 - Estimated numbers of graves
7,000 - Approximate number of graves added each year
4,641 - Unknown soldiers buried there, including those in the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier from WWI, WWII and Korea.
1864 - The year Civil War dead were first buried there, on what had been the estate of Robert E. Lee’s wife
35 - Years until full, under existing rules
The All-American Fruit

Were cranberries on the table at the first Thanksgiving feast shared by the English Pilgrims and the native Wampanoag people in 1621? Maybe, say food historians. Cranberry sauce, as we know it, was unlikely part of the menu. Sugar was in short supply, if it was available at all, and the first mention of boiling cranberries with sugar doesn’t appear in print for another 50 years. But, say the folks at Plymouth Plantation (a museum in Plymouth, Mass., that replicates the 17th-century settlement), cranberries may well have turned up in dishes shared by Wampanoag guests.

It’s known that Native Americans brewed the berries into calming tea and poultices to help wounds heal. Later, American whalers kept vitamin C-rich cranberries on board to help prevent scurvy. Modern-day research finds the fruit may have many other benefits.

96% of first time hosts plan to include cranberries in some form in their Thanksgiving feast.

2.3 pounds of cranberries are consumed per capita in the U.S., mostly in the form of juice.

REMINDER - OUR CONVENTION SPECIAL IS STILL GOING THRU DECEMBER 31ST 2018. CALL THE HOME OFFICE FOR DETAILS!!
Vanocka is a braided bread baked in the Czech Republic traditionally at Christmas time.

The first reference to a vanocka was in the 16th century. In the past it has gone under such names as: huska or calta, and can be found under such names as: pletenice, pletanka, stedrovice, strucla, stricka, stedrovcernice, zemle and ceplik. At one time a vanocka could only be made by a baker who was a guild craftsman.

In the 18th century people began to bake them at home. The first of the home baked vanocka had to be given to the master of the house, so that the grain would prosper in the following year. At the end of a Christmas Eve dinner, a large vanocka was sliced up, and in some areas a slice was given to the livestock so they would be healthy and safe from evil spirits.

A variety of customs were followed in preparing the dough, braiding and baking it to ensure success. The woman of the house had to wear a white apron and kerchief and not talk while mixing the dough. She was supposed to jump up and down while the dough was rising. In some areas a coin was baked in the vanocka. The person who found it in their slice was assured of good luck. A burnt or split vanocka was a bad omen.

Today the vanocka is an indispensable and necessary part of the Christmas holidays, whether made at home or bought in a store.

VANOCKA (CHRISTMAS SWEET BREAD)

4 cups flour
1 cup sugar
3 egg yolks
1 cup milk
1 tsp. salt
1 cake yeast
3/4 cup melted butter
1/4 cup almonds, slivered
1 cup raisins
1/2 tsp. lemon rind
Pinch of mace

Crumble yeast in a cup of lukewarm milk, add 1 Tbsp. sugar and let it stand. Put the flour in a large bowl, add sugar and salt and the flavorings. Mix in egg yolks, butter, milk and yeast mixture. The dough must be mixed thoroughly until it does not stick to the bowl. Add raisins and almonds. Put a cloth over the bowl and let the dough rise in a warm place for about 2 hours. After this, place dough on a floured board and make 9 portions, 4 large, 3 medium, and 2 small. Roll out into long thin rolls. First braid 4 large rolls and place on a greased pan, then braid the 3 rolls, and place on top and last twist the two on top of this. Let it rise again about 1/2 hour, brush it with beaten egg and bake in a 350 degree oven about 50 minutes, until it is nice and brown.

OUR CZECH SONG

Verse
1. Our (Czech) Songs are like pearls
Strung on a string.
There is so much beauty in them
And it is a great sin
That they are so oppressed.
2. Sing people, sing our Czech songs
From Morava, Slovakia and Cechy
Our Czech Song
Is truly simple,
But is the most beautiful of all.

Chorus
Our Czech Song,
It is so beautiful, so beautiful,
Just like a flower in the meadow,
Blossomed Our Czech Song.
When Our Song is lost,
Then we will have nothing..
If it should perish,
Everything we cherish will be lost..
Then we will no longer live.

KAREL HASLER

This Czech song writer was born in 1879 in Zlicchov, near Prague. From a young age he was interested in music, theatre and the stage. His talent took him to the National Theatre in Brno and later to the theatre in Lublan. During the 1908 Exposition in Prague, a new form of entertainment rang forth, the cabaret (song and humor). He contributed to the creation of popular songs of Old Prague such as “the White Blossom” and “Prague How I Love You.” On November 1, 1918, Hasler’s Cabaret was officially opened at the popular Lucerna Entertainment Center. Karel continued to compose, present and play sketches with deep political intonations. He returned to the stage as an actor, director and translator of plays.

Karel wrote “Pisnicka Ceska”, (“Our Czech Song”) in 1932. Because of its patriotic nature, the song was forbidden to be played or sung during the German occupation of Czechoslovakia in World War II and also during the Communist Regime. Karel was imprisoned twice by the Germans during World War II and died in the German Prison Camp Mauthausen in 1941.

When World War II ended and the Czech people liberated, Karel Hasler’s “Pisnicka Ceska” resounded in every street of every city, town and village, and Karel Hasler was formally decorated “In Memoriam”. “Pisnicka Ceska” is considered the 2nd National Anthem of the Czech People.

TA NASE PISNICKA CESKA

Verse
1. Ty nase pisnicky, jsou jak ty perlicky,
Na snurce navlecene.
Kolik je krasy v nich a je to velky hrich,
Ze jsou tak upustene.
2. Zpivejte lidicky, ty nase pisnicky,
Pisnicky z Moravy, z Cech,
Ta nase pisnicka, je sice prosticka,
Ale je nejhezci z vsech.

Chorus
Ta nase pisnicka ceska, ta je tak hezka, tak hezka,
Tak jako na louce kyticka, vyrostla ta nase pisnicka.
Az se ta pisnicka ztrati, pak uz nic nebudem mit,
Jestli nam zahynu, vsechno s ni pomine,
Potom uz nebudem zit.

COME, ALL YE SHEPHERDS

1. Come, all ye shepherds, your flocks will not stray,
Come and see Jesus asleep on the hay.
Near the dark manager sits His mother mild,
Humming she hovers o’er her precious Child;
Come without fear!
2. Hasten to Bethlehem, there to behold,
The Christ-child whose coming angels fore-told.
“Peace on the earth and good will to all men,”
That is the message sent down from heaven;
O praise the Lord!
Dear Veterans: For your service to our nation, I salute you. My thanks to each of you, as well as to the brave men and women still on active duty, some of whom are in harm’s way. I would also like to recognize your families for the sacrifices they, too, have made.

An Old Soldier’s Prayer

“Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he’s weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

“Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds; a song who will know Thee... and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

“Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high, a son, who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will reach into the future, yet never forgive the past. And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom and the meekness of true strength.

“Then, I, his father, will dare to whisper, I have not lived in vain.”

Gen. D. A. MacArthur
The Meaning of Thanksgiving

T is for the trust the pilgrims had so many years ago
H is for the harvest the settlers learnt to grow
A is for America, the land in which we live
N is for nature and beauty which she gives
K is for kindness, gentle words, thoughtful deeds
S is for smiles, the sunshine everyone needs
G is for gratitude... our blessings big and small
I is for ideas, letting wisdom grow tall
V is for voices, singing, laughing, always caring
I is for Indians, who taught them about sharing
N is for neighbors, across the street, over the sea
G is for giving of myself to make a better me

Pearl Harbor

DIVINITY
(A great Christmas gift)

Ingredients:
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
2 2/3 cups sugar
2/3 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla
2/3 cup broken walnuts

Directions: Beat the egg whites until stiff; set aside. Mix sugar, corn syrup and water in saucepan. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved; then cook (without stirring) to 260° until mixture reaches the hard-ball stage. (Note: To determine hard-ball stage, drop a little into cold water and it should form a hard ball). Remove from heat and pour, beating constantly, in a fine stream into the beaten egg whites. Add vanilla and continue beating until mixture holds its shape and becomes slightly dull. Fold in nuts. Spread in a greased pan with a spoon or spatula coated with vegetable cooking spray. Cut into 1-inch squares when firm. Makes 48 pieces.

It was never illegal to drink during Prohibition. Prohibition barred making alcohol, selling it and shipping it for the purposes of consumption. On December 5, 1933, the 21st Amendment was ratified and Prohibition ended. This day is known as Repeal Day.
A Christmas prayer:
Loving God, Help us remember the birth of Jesus,
That we may share in the song of the angels,
The gladness of the shepherds,
And worship of the wise men.
Close the door of hate
And open the door of love all over the world.
Let kindness come with every gift and good desires with every greeting.
Deliver us from evil by the blessing which Christ brings,
And teach us to be merry with clear hearts.
May the Christmas morning make us happy to be thy children,
And Christmas evening bring us to our beds with grateful thoughts,
Forgiving and forgiven, for Jesus’ sake. Amen.

Prague Loreto – the Church of the Lord’s Nativity
(Kostel Narozeni Pane)

Loreto is a pilgrimage destination in Hradcany, Prague. It consists of the church of the Lord’s Birth (the Sancta Casa) and a clock tower with a famous chime. Construction began in 1626 and was blessed on March 25, 1631.
Sancta Casa is the place in Nazareth where the Archangel Gabriel announced to the Virgin Mary that she would give birth to Jesus, the Son of God.

Jim Melantrich
Jiri was born in 1511 in Rozdalovice. He was a Czech Renaissance printer and publisher. In 1557, he received a coat-of-arms (pictured). The Prague publishing company, Melantrich, established in 1897, is named after him.
Jiri Melantrich died on November 19, 1580.

The Meaning of the Snowman

The white snow represents God’s forgiveness of our sins.
The circular snowballs show the everlasting life God promises us.
The carrot nose shows us that God has given us the Earth and all living things.
The black coal mouth reminds us to give God praise.
The scarf keeps us warm, just as God’s love does.
The top hat reminds us to honor God above all things.
The twig arms are open to hold us the way God does when we need him.

Czechs try these to bring good luck in the New Year.

At Christmas dinner, the table should be set for an even number of guests. An odd number brings bad luck. An extra place can be used to even out the number of guests and should be set out in case of an unexpected guest.

Put honey in a saucer on the Christmas table to ward off evil and bring health to the family.

No alcohol should be served on Christmas Eve.

Put fish scales under the dinner plates or the tablecloth to bring wealth to the house.

No one should get up from the table before dinner is finished.

That’s bad luck. And don’t leave anything on your plate.

Table legs should be tied with rope to protect the home from thieves in the New Year. Also, put a bowl of garlic under the table for good luck.

Sokol St. Louis

PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY

Lord, you intended for the Holy Family to be an example for all, and for the Holy Spirit to enlighten our homes.

May we, like them, be able to live according to the family virtues and stand united by the strength of Your love, before meeting again for eternity in the joy of Your house.

Amen.
