JANUARY - FEBRUARY 2020

CHARLES BRIDGE
Members of CCU Life,

On behalf of the CCU Life Board of Directors, Staff and Myself - we wish all of you a very ‘Happy and Healthy New Year!’ Another year is upon us and many have made their traditional ‘New Year’s Resolutions!’ Let’s try and keep them this year! In trying to keep your New Year’s resolution, consider part of your resolution to add another member to the CCU membership. Insurance sales can be a hard sell, but with the assistance and persistence of the membership and Board, we need to make the effort.

The 3rd quarter of 2019 proves to be positive and a good sign for a healthy year end. More on the year end financials will be forth coming once the Annual Statement has been completed. Look for a complete financial report in the May-June 2020 Posel.

By now all of you have received your 2019 Dividends. At the start of a new year it is a good time to review your insurance in force with CCU Life. Take the time to make sure your beneficiary is up to date, make any necessary name changes or even change of address. Should you have any questions, or need any other assistance just contact the Home Office.

Fraternally,
Theresa Aveni
President
A CZECH NEW YEAR’S CELEBRATION

As in other parts of the world, New Year’s Eve in Czech Republic is a night of merrymaking with family and friends, but the traditional New Year’s Day feast would not fill Americans with eager anticipation. The ear or jowl of a hog must be eaten! These cuts of pork are served with marinated horseradish and apples, for the superstition is that this menu will insure happiness in the ensuing year.

In olden times, it was the custom for village boys to go around a week later in groups of three, each dressed in long robes and paper crowns to represent the Biblical “Three Kings.” They scrawled their initials in chalk on doors and walls: K for Kaspar, M for Melchior, and B for Balthazar. The houses they marked with these initials were supposed to be protected against misfortune for a year. The “Three Kings” received candy and apples or money from those they protected.

PRAGUE NEW YEAR’S EVE

A hlaholem pozdravu pronika hlas.
Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria,
Zdravas, Zdravas, Zdravas, Maria.

A podel ni hned andel pruvodce stal.

To Our Lady of Lourdes

Ah the bells ring out in the beloved hour
And with a peal a voice pierces the greeting
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria
Hail, hail, hail Maria

The girl Bernadette went beyond the river,
And along it at once a guiding angel stood
Ave, ...
Hail, ...

Feastday is February 11th.
KISSING ON NEW YEAR’S

According to historians, in midwinter the ancient Romans would celebrate the end of planting season by honoring Saturn, the god of agriculture, liberation and time, with a weeklong festival of Saturnalia. Many of today’s Christmas and New Year’s traditions can be traced back to this celebration of Saturnalia, during which people would decorate their homes with wreaths, give gifts, stop working or conducting business, partake in lots of food and wine and engage in general merrymaking (which included kissing and less pure activities).

The notion of kissing for good luck has a few origins. Europe’s masquerade balls allowed men and women to indulge their sexual proclivities with persons of whatever sex and class they chose. When people took off their masks, they would kiss the first person they saw as a way of cleansing themselves from any evil forces.

Later on, English and German folklore held that it was the first person with whom a person came in contact that dictated that year’s destiny. Over time people may have begun to take a proactive approach by kissing someone they knew and liked at the first moment of the New Year.

In Scotland, the tradition is for revelers to kiss everyone in the room, so no one gets left out.

Then there are some people who hide in their room so they do not have to partake in any of this.

Ha, ha!!! Happy New Year to All!

Saints Cyril And Methodius

Amazing Anagrams

Is it mere coincidence that you can rearrange the letters in the words on the left to get the words on the right?

Dormitory = Dirty room
The Morse code = Here come dots
Slot machines = Cash lost in ’em
Snooze alarms = Alas! No more z’s
Eleven plus two = Twelve plus one

Can I prepare my own estate planning documents?

Can you prepare your own estate planning documents (i.e. Healthcare Power of Attorney, Financial Power of Attorney, Will, Trust)? Yes, you can, but the question is should you do this?

Anyone can find anything on the internet nowadays and “services” such as Legal Zoom and others appear to make it even easier to DIY your estate plan. When you create an estate plan, you are making critical decisions regarding who will decide what medical treatment you receive, who will have access to your money, who will take care of your children when you pass and who will receive your life-savings when you pass? How do you know the DIY estate plan you have created is correct? Have you considered all of the pros and cons of your decision?

When I meet with clients to prepare their estate plan, they often remark, “well, I didn’t think of that.” What factors need to be considered when choosing your child’s guardian? Is it wise to automatically choose your oldest child as your power of attorney? What are the pros and cons of co-powers of attorney? What if your selected power of attorney cannot serve? What are some options to provide your children with their inheritance, but keep them from squandering it?

The most important part of creating an estate plan is proper consideration of your options and making sound decisions. Failure to make a good decision can result in discord among family members, mismanagement of assets, at best, and court lawsuits and stealing of assets, at worst.

As tempting as it is to just DIY your estate plan, with such important decisions at stake, it is imperative that you use qualified legal counsel to assist you. This is especially true since once a deficiency is found in your estate plan, it may be too late to make changes.

LIFE LESSONS AND BELIEFS

Lack of courage holds too many people back from having an amazing life.

Trust takes a while to earn and can vanish in a second.

Know, believe and love what you are doing in life and at work.

Handwritten notes remain one of the best ways to say “thank you.”

Regrets cannot exist if you feel you are making the best decision at the time.

Success is harder to sustain than to achieve.

Work smart and you will work less.

There is no better feedback tool than the mirror.

Every day we have a golden opportunity to make a difference and change the world.

You can’t measure success before you define it.

BROKEN HEART SYNDROME

Broken heart syndrome happens when, under extreme stress, the heart changes shape as the left ventricle weakens, causing part of it to balloon out. Symptoms can mimic a heart attack, but the American Heart Association (AHA) says an electrocardiogram can show a distinct difference. “In broken heart syndrome, symptoms occur suddenly after extreme emotional or physical stress,” the AHA says. Most patients survive when under a doctor’s care. The AHA recommends testing for those who feel chest pains while dealing with emotional trauma or depression.

TV CLASSICS

The University at Buffalo Research Institute On Addictions found that re-watching favorite shows could restore willpower (something you want plenty of to keep your healthy-living goals on track). Researchers believe this is because you don’t have to devote as much mental energy to something you’ve seen already, so your brain can replenish your self-control supply. Plus, feeling nostalgic has been shown to boost happiness.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd
That’s Relationship!
I shall not want
That’s Supply!
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures
That’s Rest!
He leadeth me beside the still waters
That’s Refreshment!
He restoreth my soul
That’s Healing!
He leadeth me in the part of righteousness
That’s Guidance!
For His name sake
That’s purpose!
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
That’s Testing!
I will fear no evil
That’s Protection!
For Thou art with me
That’s faithfulness!
Thy rod and Thy shaff they comfort me
That’s Discipline!
Thou’s preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
That’s Hope!
Thou anointest my head with oil
That’s Consecration!
My cup runneth over
That’s Abundance!
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life
That’s Blessing!
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord
That’s Security!
Forever
That’s Eternity!

It’s definitely true our Lord loves you.

LIFE is not measured by the number of BREATHS we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.

The Old Town Hall with the Astronomical Clock, Horologe (Sundial) was designed by Jan Sindel, a Catholic priest and astronomer, and Mikulas of Kadan, the clockmaker. It was first installed in 1410, making it the third-oldest astronomical clock in the world and the oldest clock still operating.

The main function of the clock back in the days, was to depict the movement of celestial bodies (Sun and the Moon included) with the idea that time was merely a secondary element.

On the hour, a procession of the Twelve Apostles appears in the window in the upper part. These figures were added in the mid to late 1600s. In the lower part are 12 medallions with the signs of the zodiac, created by Josef Manes.

The Nutritional Benefits of Sauerkraut

An old Pennsylvania Dutch tradition is eating sauerkraut on New Year’s Day, a practice that is said to bring good luck. It may also bring better digestion and help the body resist infection, according to the International Food Information Council. Sauerkraut is made by fermenting cabbage, and the bacteria that results, called probiotics, have a beneficial effect on your digestive tract, breaking down food and making it easier to absorb nutrients.

HROMNICE

The day of Hromnice (pronounced hrom-nyi-tseh) is an important day for Czech weather-related folklore. It falls on February 2nd (Groundhog Day). The Czech word Hromnice is derived from sanctified “hromnice” candles that were lit on the night of February 2nd and if there was a thunderstorm (thunder=hrom).

Predicting the length of winter.
- Sviti-li slunce na Hromnice, bude zimy o sest nedel vice.
  If the sun is shining on Hromnice, there will be six more weeks of winter.
- Hromnice-li jasne, ciste, potrva dele zima jiste. Pakli snezi nebo hrima, jaro jiste v blizku dliga.
  If Hromnice is bright and clear, winter is sure to linger. If there is snow or thunder, spring must be near.
- Jihne-li na Hromnice, prilož do kamen; mrzneli, po zime amen.
  If the snow is melting on Hromnice, add more wood to the fire; if it’s freezing, the winter is over.
- O Hromnicich dest - na jare snih; o Hromnicich snih - na jare dest.
  Rain on Hromnice - snow in the spring; snow on Hromnice - rain in the spring.
- Zelene Hromnice - bile velikonoci.
  Green Hromnice - white Easter.

TRUE BEAUTY

When we look at ourselves,

It’s easy to focus on “all

Those little flaws - real

Or imagined - and miss

What’s really important.

But each brush stroke

Doesn’t have to be perfect

For a work of art to be a Masterpiece!!!

Step back and see the big picture.

You are breathtaking!!!
