Condolences are sent to the family and friends of our member, Thomas R. Skulina, member of St. Joseph Society #156, who passed away on October 17, 2021. Thomas was born and raised in the Broadway/East 55th area of Cleveland, Ohio and a member of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish. He had been an attorney for the NY Central Railroad and its successors which he had represented in over 50 jury trials. After leaving the railroad, Thomas had a wide range of a law practice. Thomas also served as an arbitrator in labor and securities matters. He was a member of the American,

Federal Bar and Cleveland Bar Associations and the National Academy of Arbitrators. Thomas was the Czech Catholic Union legal advisor years ago. He was very generous with free legal advice to our elderly members.

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

COVER STORY

Jilemnice is a town in Semily District in the Liberec Region of the Czech Republic. It lies on the foothills of the Krkonose Mountains.

Almost every year, in the square of Jilemnice a statue of Krakonos grows out of snow. The giant snow sculpture is created by a group of skilled artists headed by Josef Dufek. They have been building the snow giant for over 20 years. It continues a tradition maintained by Dufek's father and founded by his grandfather. Snow Krakonos first grew up in Jilemnice Square in 1909.

Krakonos is a little different each year. In order to create the statue, shovels of snow are thrown and an axe is used for the details. In the end, the artists spray him with water to freeze him properly.

KRKONOSE MUSEUM

The Krkonose Museum in Jilemnice was founded in 1891. The oldest independent ski association, which has been organizing sports skiing since 1894, is located in Jilemnice. The museum moved several times, but since 1953 it has been housed in the former castle of the Counts of Harrach (House of Harrach is a Bohemian and Austro-German noble family). Count Jan Harrach imported the first skis from Norway to Jilemnice, which laid the foundations for one of the most popular Czech sports.

The U.S. Treasury currently holds 147.3 million ounces of gold bullion. About half of it is stored at Fort Knox, a stash that's worth more than $130 billion.

Security at Fort Knox is so tight, only one president has ever been inside the vaults: Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the same president who effectively took us off the gold standard in 1933. (The United States didn't fully abandon it until 1971.)

CURB THE COFFEE

In moderation, coffee has its place in a healthy diet. It's packed with antioxidants compound that act as nature's repair kit for cell damage. New research connects regular coffee intake to a reduced risk of Parkinson's disease and liver cancer. It may also contribute to heart health, ward off diabetes and lessen the chances of dementia. Be aware however, more than two to four cups a day can give you insomnia, stomach irritation, anxiety and other jangly effects. Six cups a day can elevate bad cholesterol. For optimal health, switch up some of your cups of coffee to tea. It has less caffeine and also helps to maintain dental, bone, heart and brain health.

MAILBOX MONEY

For those of you who are regular readers of this column, you know we've talked about cyber security, phishing, and other assorted scams including phone scams. Today we will discuss another scam that involves the United States Postal System and mailboxes.

Yes, mailboxes.

Recently, in a well to do suburb in central Ohio, a thief approached a mailman during his route as he delivered the mail. The thief brandished a weapon but only wanted to take a certain key from the postman. He did. That key however, was a master key that could open all the mailboxes in that community.

Guess what happened soon afterwards!?! That's right, there was a rash of break ins of mail stolen directly from several mailboxes.

The thief wasn't after a new subscription to Sports Illustrated or the latest magazine of Hollywood actors. No, the thief was after paper checks. Now why would someone want a paper check particularly when it was not written out to that person? I'll tell you why. The thief was after all those digits at the bottom of the check that tell which bank the check came from, the amount of the check and other pertinent information!

So, what happened next was the thief bought a $200 specialized printer that can print magnetic ink on to pre-printed check paper. This magnetic ink is very important since it is read by bank machinery to determine things like the account number of the bank in which the check originally came from.

As you probably can imagine, certain people and or certain businesses started seeing money taken out of their account from checks that they did not write. This type of scam is growing faster, as a percentage, than other financial fraud.

So what can you do to avoid these things? Well first, if you have to mail a check through the United States Postal System, try to go directly to the post office and drop off the letter there. It helps if the envelope is plain and generic. Hence, it does not look like it holds a check. (You know the kind) Another thing you can do, is do a daily monitoring of your account. This can be done on-line and is fairly straightforward and most of the time is free.

If you are the victim of this type of crime, you must report it immediately to your bank. They will also ask you to file a police report with your local authorities. If done quick enough you can be guaranteed that the money will be recovered and returned to your checking account. So don't wait! Again, monitor daily your account. Finally, if it continues to happen, you must close out that account and open up a new one. Yes, this is a hassle. But what is worse? A little bit of your time or all of your money stolen?

THE ABOMINABLE SNOWWOMAN

According to Guinness World Records, the "tallest snowperson" in American history was actually a woman. Olympia, completed in February 2008 in Bethel, Maine, was 122 feet one inch tall. Her eyelashes were made of skis, the buttons were truck tires, and her arms were fashioned from 30-foot spruce trees. She was about 11 feet taller than the Statue of Liberty, though she had a much shorter life span.

Obtain from your Divine Son my special request if it be God's will.

PRESIDENTS WITH COMPASSION

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Often Lincoln applied his signature to pardons for troops who deserted their posts or faced criminal charges. He wrote to a friend in 1862, "With malice toward none, with charity toward all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us finish the work we are in, to bind the nation's wounds."

GERALD FORD

In 1974, Ford pardoned former President Richard Nixon in the wake of the Watergate scandal. He believed the pardon would help heal the wounds of Watergate, allowing the U.S. to move on to address a foundering economy and the last gasps of the Vietnam War.

GEORGE H.W. BUSH

Bush called for a kinder, gentler nation. "America is never wholly herself unless she is engaged in high moral principle," Bush said, urging Americans to get involved in their communities.

RONALD REAGAN (Dec. 4, 1983)

"In my view, every exercise program should have an outdoor element to it whether jogging, bicycling, skiing, hiking or walking. I prefer horseback riding and whenever possible, hard manual labor at the ranch."

BARACK OBAMA (May 16, 2010)

"At times like these, when the future seems unsettled and uncertain, it can be easy to lose heart. When you turn on the tv or read newspapers or blogs, the voices of cynicism and pessimism always seem to be the loudest. Don't believe them."

A NEW OCEAN

The National Geographic Society has been mapping the world's oceans since 1915, but in 2021 the cartographers produced a surprise: a fifth ocean! It's the body of water surrounding Antarctica that's been carved from the nearby Pacific, Atlantic and Indian Oceans by the fast-moving Antarctic Circumpolar Current. The society is calling this new fifth sea-ster the Southern Ocean, which is certainly accurate and maybe a little boring.

PRAYER TO ST. JOHN NEUMANN

Saint John Neumann, Servant of God and Man, your desire to bring all souls to Christ inspired you to leave your family, home and your country.

Ask for us the grace to live worthily in the spirit of our Baptism so that all our thoughts, words and actions of every day will bring

God our Father greater honor and glory. Ask for us the graces necessary to help and to serve the poor, the suffering and the oppressed. May we live as you lived persevering in every difficulty to know and to do God's will. In this life, may we share your intercession, the protection of Mary and the grace of Jesus Christ our Lord and Redeemer.

CZECH CANDY

Chocolate in Czech is cokolada. Milk chocolate is mlečna cokolada. Dark chocolate is horka cokolada. Chocolates are cokoladove bonbony and they usually come in a box, bonboniera.

Typical Czech chocolates are rum pralines, rumove pralinky, filled with dark Czech rum. A type of bonboniera that all Czechs remember with nostalgia is vanocni kolekce, "the Christmas collection".

These were Christmas-themed chocolates on strings that could be hung on the Christmas tree.

Other types of candy are toffees, karamely; gummy bears, gumove medvidky; mints, mentolky. A lollipop is lizatko, meaning something to lick. Chewing gum is zvykacka.

Our America

Our country may now face hard times,
 With this we all agree,
 But we'll survive, ride out the storm,
 And good times once more see.

We've seen recession, depression,
 And we survived them all.
 We fought in wars on foreign lands -
 Our freedom did not fall.

We've seen good times and bad times
 And we will see some more,
 But we'll pull through, there is no doubt,
 Just as we did before.
